FOREWORD

In the publication of this 1939 TOWER we have not followed a theme or a motif. Instead we have tried merely to picture our college, The Stout Institute, as we have known it.

President

BURTON E. NELSON

Class of '39—

Have you a vision of 1949? Will you have reached the pinnacle of your ambitions in 1959? In '69 will you be satisfied with the position you hold, with the work you have done? That's worth thinking about now.

The perplexities and perils of a troubled world face you. Unrest and dissatisfaction are ancient phenomena of human societies; but at no time in the history of civilization have they been so universal. This is due to a large number and variety of factors; but basically it is because we live in an accelerated industrial age brought about by the dazzling speed of scientific advancement.

You, most of you, have lived short of a quarter of a century—a small dot on the time-line of human history. And yet in that brief span of years you have seen, mirabile dictu, the well nigh universal use of the telephone, the telegraph, the motor car, and the marvelous development of electric illumination. You have seen the actual introduction of the motion picture—sound, technicolor, third dimension—the radio, the airplane, streamlined trains and ships. Television and microphotography are experimentally successful.

In this new, more compact world, wisdom and personal integrity are needed as never before. Confusion and fear challenge the very foundations of liberalism, fundamental to a few people. If, in this crisis, we may not safely trust our teachers to lead the way to sanity and safety, the development of a century must go for naught.

Let not the uncertainties, these unsolved problems, dismay you. Dispel fear, cultivate courage, stand by a steady purpose to serve in this battle of divergent philosophies, and do no less than your full part in making your own nation as much America as ever, guaranteeing "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" to your children and their children throughout the years. This is your Alma Mater's challenge.

Stout Student Association: The clearing house of student woes, the battleground of student rights—the Stout Student Association. Periodical student assemblies under the S.S.A. officers' guidance provide an opportunity for the expression of student opinion on college problems. Since its founding in 1928, the S.S.A. has carried on its policies of bringing the ideas of the students to the faculty and of co-ordinating the social activities of the college. Other S.S.A. duties include apportioning the five-dollar activity fee, holding a monthly all-college dance, and planning the homecoming program.

Third Row: Theodore Lantz, Bertrand Engel, Kenneth Pederson, Sydney Scoville, Owin Fahling.

Second Row: William Hansen, Mr. Brophy, Mr. Baker, Mr. Brown, Mr. Price, Mr. Good.

Other Resident Members: President Nelson, Mr. Ray, Mr. Welch, Mr. Wigen, Mr. Curran, Mr. Milner, Willis Rockwell, Fred Blair, Robert Frykland.

Epsilon Pi Tau: Two professional conferences for juniors, seniors, and faculty men are sponsored each year by E.P.T., a national honorary scholastic fraternity in the field of industrial arts and vocational education. These conferences, conducted by professional men in the field of education, acquaint industrial teachers who are in training with current typical field problems. Their chapter of Epsilon Pi Tau, installed at Stout in 1933, has for its purpose the development of professional interests through social and professional contacts, through professional analyses, and through co-operative research.

Third Row: Phyllis DeBoer, Mary Ives, Margaret Treweek, Elizabeth Watson, Louise Kirk, Helen Sedivy, Marjorie Bond.

Second Row: Jane Chenoweth, Mary Blair, Miss Trullinger, Associate Member, Mrs. Houston, Adviser, Miss Cruik, Honorary Member, Marian Petersen, Carol Dwyer, Margaret Gibson.

First Row: Doris Tuttle, Agatha Norton, Miss Aber, Jeanne Morgan, Secretary, Catherine Kirk, President, Ruth Laatsch, Vice-President, Miss Quilling, Frances Hartung, Eleanor Morris.

Other Member: Dorothy Oosterhuis, Treasurer.

Other Honorary Members: Miss Michaels, Miss Walsh.

Phi Upsilon Omicron: PHI UPSILON OMICRON, national honorary professional home economics fraternity, was installed at Ston in April, 1933. In addition to its participation in a national professional project concerned with consumer education, Phi U carries on local professional work. It maintains a loan fund for junior and senior college students in home economics and a library at the home management house; it circulates two color boxes among teachers of home economics to aid them in teaching color in relation to dress; it gives financial aid to a visual aid project. On February tenth Phi U held a Founders' Day banquet in celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the fraternity's existence.

First Row: Mary Blair, President-Elect, Frances Hartung, Treasurer, Miss Walsh, Adviser, Karen Feedal, President, Miss Crane, Adviser, Eleanor Morris, Vice-President, Dorothy Schultz, Margaret Dockan, Secretary.

Home Economics Club:

First among the women's organizations stands the ten-year-old Home Economics Club which upholds the traditions long established at Stout. Since all students enrolled in the Division of Home Economics are members, this club finds no dearth of talent to carry on its multifarious activities. These include the Yule Kaffeelog, the spring Home Economics Club rally, the farewell breakfast for senior women, and the sending of delegates to the state and national conventions. The club's four-fold objectives are to develop professional spirit, to improve social and educational activities, to keep students in closer touch with the greater organizations in home economics, and to promote the international home economics fellowship fund.

 Second Row: Elmer Clausen, Israel Bensman, Ernest Bearuff, John Hoang, Arland Russell.
 Front Row: Mr. Baker, Lloyd Whydotaki, Secretary, Joseph Tondryk, President, Donald MacGregor, Leonard Stoffo, Treasurer, Mr. Brophy.
 Other Members: George Alt, Lorn Jaeger, Adrian Pollock.
 Honorary Members: J. H. Boothby, Vivian Bow.

Stout Typographical Society: The fun in Ye Olde Gutenberg Inn still lingers in the minds of students and faculty members. The Stout Typographical Society, sponsor of the Inn, includes that group of men through whose veins runs printers' ink and whose interest in the graphic arts is all-absorbing. The acquisition of information and knowledge concerning printing and publishing, the analysis of problems confronting teachers of printing, and the stimulation of co-operation and fellowship among those interested in printing are the avowed purposes of this organization. Among the members of S.T.S., who heatedly affirm the superiority of printers over other tradesmen, there are four degrees,—those of apprentice, journeyman, master, and honorary member.

Fifth Row: Helen Carlson, Carol Wunrow, Ruth Pady, Harriet Dillon, Floy Whitmore, Betty Coy, Marian Henderson, Florence Koehler, Wilma Bunge, Violet Josephson.
 Fourth Row: Lois Jean Gregg, Vernice Tucker, June Amundson, Kathleen Michaels, Merle
 Atkinson, Betty Arngvist, Mary Jane Kuenzi, Mona Reppe, Virginia Bowers, Jane Beddow, Betty Nichols.
 Third Row: Lela Sibley, Betty Benson, Alice Krueger, Lois Stralim, Jane Seylorih, Barbara
 Erwin, Mary Ellen Rudessli, Vivian Bow, Betty Smith, Ellen Rose Stevens, Virginia
 Hickcox, Ruth Erlandson.
 Brunner, Josephine Ryan, Helen Willems, Marian Becker.
 First Row: Dana Tuttle, Helen Frihnov, Margaret Treweek, Lorraine Sell, Miss Antrim, Advisor, Helen Sedivy, Louise Kirk, Margaret Watson.

Women's Athletic Association: An active W.A.A.

member spends her spare moments gaining hours of credit in sports,—in organized hikes, swimming parties, hockey, skating, basketball, and volley ball.
 She helps in planning and carrying out the W.A.A. program of intramural sports and participates in the water carnival sponsored by the W.A.A. in the early spring.

Fifth Row: Clifford Moo, Paul Pagel, Howard Dahel, Sherwood Speller, Darby Worman, Claude Howard, Tony DeChiara.
 Fourth Row: Robert Forman, Rex Merriam, Nick Millarich, Robert Maldi, Donald Hansen, Leverett Hinkel, Donald Hutzman, Art Otteson.
 Third Row: Earl Morrison, Merton Jessel, Norman Running, Paul Schwartz, Pat Murphy, William Odell, Lester Reynolds, Ingmar Borko.

"S" Club: Stout's huskiest athletes, men who have won at least one letter in a major sport, are members of the "S" Club. "The Stout Code of Sportsmanship," formulated by this club, is intended to create and stimulate sportsmanship at intercollegiate athletic contests and to establish closer athletic relationships between Stout and its rival colleges. To its graduating senior members who have won two or more letters in any one major sport the "S" Club awards the official "S" jacket.

Third Row: Lester Reynolds, Howard Rothleberger, Robert Riller, Philip Beehl, Yoshiharu Ogata
 Second Row: James Peterson, William Christensen, Mr. Krausz, Adviser, Wayne Pool
 Front Row: Kenneth Pedersen, Secretary, Garnett Nobienaky, Vice-President, Lawrence Schaefer, President, Orvis Johnson, Treasurer
 Other Members: Fred Blair, Willie Rockwell, Joe Stangi, Dick Trezona.

Arts and Crafts: The effort of the Arts and Crafts club to change the course of homecoming events through a sale of rabbits' feet was not unappreciated. Other more successful activities of this group include a hobby show, an annual all-school dance, social meetings every six weeks, and work on individual hobbies. Scout men with a grade point average of 1.6 and the approval of the club are eligible for membership. The group, formerly the Scout De Molay, is now affiliated with the National Homeworkshop Guild.

Young Men's Christian Association: Comper-

able to the Big Sister movement is the Senior Counseling program of the Stout Y.M.C.A., but in the latter case it is the freshman men who are put under the wings of upperclassmen until they can fly alone. A mixer picnic at the beginning of the fall term, an all-school party, and Stunt Night are sponsored by the Y.M. The men participate in the athletic program of the college,—especially in the intramural games. Competent speakers address the meetings of the group and frequent social get-togethers unite the members.

Fourth Row: Deloris Stenerson, Ruth Chanoweth, Jane Beddow, Clara Brown, Kathleen Michaels, Eileen Behrens, Edith Hince.

Third Row: Helen Williams, Alice Krueger, Burdine Brunner, Phyllis Wagner, Elsie Jackland, Janet Tiffany, LaVerne Christensen, Jean Maurer.

First Row: Alice Baker, Audrey Peterson, Charlotte Roethe, Sue Richardson, Carol Dreyer, Carol Wunrow, Louise Kirk, Geraldine Bart.

Young Women's Christian Association: Big Sisters were in no small way responsible for the good times the freshman girls enjoyed during the first few lonesome days away from home. The sponsorship of this campus sister movement is only one of the ways in which the Y.W.C.A.

 Other Members: Mr. Johnson, Honorary Member; Earl Morrison, Garnett Noblensky, Lawrence Schade.

F. O. B. F.O.B. (not the Detroit variety) has added another year to its history as the oldest social organization for men at Stout. Athletics receive the special favors of this group. Not only does F.O.B. co-operate with and support the college teams, but it also encourages the individual participation of its members in athletics. Each year F.O.B. awards a scholarship to the man who has done noteworthy work in athletics.

Fourth Row: Philip Ruehl, Rolf Berg, Gerald Hawkinson, Paul Paget, Joseph Tondryk.
 Third Row: Paul Brown, Rowland Morrison, Paul Bailey, Kenneth Pederson, James Peterman.
 Second Row: Owia Fahling, Robert Keith, Delmar Owens, Robert Roland, Arland Bartelt, Wayne Pool.
 Other Members: Adrian Pollock, Ingmar Barbo, Darby Worman, Lawrence Decker.

K. F. S. Rather socially-minded young men belong to K.F.S. This organization holds social meetings, theater parties, an all-school dance, and a formal dinner dance. The letters K.F.S. sum up the purpose of the club: the encouraging of knowledge, friendship, and society. In 1936, K.F.S. initiated the giving of an annual scholarship to the Stout man who shows the greatest skill, the best craftsmanship, the highest scholarship, and the most admirable attitude of all the Stout men toward the college.

Second Row: Dorothy Schultz, Ruth Fahling, Miss Henriette Quilling, Helen Taylor, Mrs. Eleanor Segerstrom, Edna Koss, Margaret Gibson.

Other Member: Dorothy Worth Corniels.

Hyperian: Sending a tot to nursery school is only one of the activities of the Hyperian Society in the field of social service. In the midst of active participation in all college affairs, the Hype find time to conduct an annual Christmas card sale, to sponsor an all-school dance, and to give a dinner dance. Founded in 1923, this organization has consistently encouraged high scholarship, furthered social life for its members, and done work of value in the community. Hype are good athletes, too; their volleyball team won the intramural contest this year.

Third Row: Marion Gullickson, Geraldine Bay, Ruth Leansky, Catherine Kirk, Harriet Dillon, Carol Wunrow, Eleanor Morris.
 Second Row: Helen Rogers, Sue Richardson, Gwendolyn Jones, Charlotte Ruess, Lucille Waller, Jane Ecke, Agatha Norton, Lois Kasmarck, Margaret Watson.
 First Row: Rose Marie Norman, Carol Dreyer, Catherine Roethe, President, Miss Rogers, Adviser, Viola Luebke, Secretary, Louise Kirk, Treasurer, Elaine Bourgeois.
 Other Members: Mrs. George La Pointe, Town Adviser; Marcia Blank, Rose Folk, Thejira Haaya.

Pallas Athene: Despite its youth (it was founded in 1934), the Pallas Athene society has always participated actively in college events. Last fall, for the third consecutive time, this society won first prize for having the most beautiful float in the homecoming parade. The Easter sale, held each year, was even more successful than in years past. In this season's competition, the members produced a winning basketball team, for the intramural games find eager contestants in the group. As in former years, the society offered a scholarship to a high-ranking sophomore girl.

Third Row: Mayoria Shewter, Mary Blair, Maryory Jackson, Esther Wernlund, Virginia Ray, Jimmy Morgan, Cecilia Demko
 Second Row: Elaine Larson, Myrtle Smith, Ellen Gibson, Lillian Baxter, Doris Rydberg, Marjaret Docker
 First Row: Marian Petersen, Charlotte Roach, Miss Van Ness, Adviser, Mrs. P. C. Wilson; Adviser, Virginia Wild, Betty Milnes, Carol Snell
 Other Member: Dorothy Vindlen

Philomathean: There is an interesting old statement about reaching people's hearts by a rather devious route. The Philomathean Literary Society has tested the truth of the adage in its annually successful sale of English taffies. The proceeds of the candy sale, with the proceeds from the sale of a great variety of handmade articles, are put into a scholarship fund presented each year to a deserving freshman girl. The Philomathean Society was organized in 1912 for the sole purpose of studying good literature. Today the activities of the organization include social meetings, a dinner dance, an all-school dance, a home-coming breakfast, and a senior recognition luncheon.

Third Row: Rebecca Hoyle, Grace Jean, Marjory Turner, Louise Smith, Evelyn Jackson, Ruth Goeres.
 First Row: Jeanne Miller, Betty Quilling, Vice-President, Maxine Clark, President, Mrs. Jeter, Adviser, Janet Johnson, Secretary, Shirley Reese, Doris Stover.
 Other Members: Mrs. Butler, Town Adviser, Jean Orsady, Treasurer, Mary Rowe Quilling, Lois Volp, Virginia Moore.

S. M. A., "Leap Year Week," thanks to S.M.A., provides an annual rest for the purses of diligent Stout men. Although members of this group keep the meaning of the name of their organization a close secret, it is no secret that this society is an active and enthusiastic supporter of many college activities. As a social group, the society provides educational and social contacts for its members. As a group interested in the maintenance of scholastic achievements, the organization keeps a Student Loan Fund available to deserving students.

 Third Row: Ruth Goeres, Patricia North, Ann Rudow, Audrey Petersen, Betty Quilling, Bonnie Westlandt, Jean Dorr.
 Second Row: Vivian Row, Vera Owen, Isabel O'Meara, Leonard Stolla, Cornelius Spinola, Ellen Gibson, Eileen Reardon, Jane Klatt.

Stoutonia: Just below its masthead the Stoutonia states its code: "The Stoutonia is a little more than just a newspaper—it is an educational experiment. It is written to inform, enlighten, and entertain and to give its staff members experience that conforms to good journalistic principles and practice." Meetings on Tuesday evenings find the Stoutonia staff members feverishly typing stories, reading copy, and writing heads in their attempt to put out a prize paper each week. Each Friday noon long lines of students form outside the college post office to exchange their S.S.A. coupons for the papers.

Standing: Duane Anderson, Organizations Staff; Joseph Tondryk, Art Editor; Ellen Gibson, Literary Editor; James Pateman, Organizations Staff; Mr. Baker, Business Adviser; Virginia Nel, Mona Reppe, Typists.
Seated: Agatha Norton, Editor; Miss Callahan, Editorial Adviser; John Hub, Business Manager; Jean Naulin.
Other Members: Majesta Shearer, Edward Tanner, Organizations Staff.

Tower: For thirty years students at Stout have eagerly awaited the spring publication of the yearbook. Edited by students for students, the Tower presents the playtime and workaday activities of The Stout Institute. Informality is the keynote of the 1939 Tower as it is the keynote of the friendly spirit of the college itself. This year's staff found working on the Tower especially enjoyable and convenient in the new Tower office on floor B of Home Economics Hall.

Symphonic Choir:

The word most often with the choir this year was "Baltimore", for the group sang at the biennial convention of the federation of music clubs in that city. The sixty choir members rehearsed endlessly in preparation for this and lesser concert appearances of the year.

Fourth Row: Margaret Nichols, Ellen Heuser, Lorraine Amundson, Floy Whitmore, Betty Coe, Helen Hill, Marian Henderson, Helen Carlson, Elizabeth Watson, Wilma Bunge
 Third Row: Mary Anne Lackner, Betty Fierer, Muriel Skinner, Geraldine Dillon, Beverly Peterson, Charlotte Billing, Ann Rudow, Virginia Nel, Marsha Kelly, Betty Wells, Helen Rogers
 Second Row: Dorothy Fulton, Dotis Nelson, Margaret Gibson, Marian Becker, Marjory Ruesink, Lorraine Walters, Marjorie Bard, Zella Joos, Elaine Curtan, Marian Schultz
 First Row: Margaret Knight, Jane Klatt, Audrey Spreiter, Joyce Scott, Eleanor Morris, Lillian Baxter, Jeannette Slamen, Neva Selves, June Wilson, Eulika Emberson, Janet Tibbany

Women's Glee Club: The Women's Glee Club, largest of the choral groups, provides an opportunity for many of Stout's vocally inclined young women to exercise their talents. Under the direction of Mr. Cooke, this group practices weekly to master some of the finer points and techniques of choral singing. The Glee Club made public appearances at the Christmas concert, at a spring concert, and at Chippewa Falls.

Second Row: Mr. Cooke, Director; Keith Moan, James Breitzman, Israel Benaman, Rowland Morrison, Robert Rumsey, Roger Jewett, Irwin Enli, Earl Belle, Betty Coe.
First Row: Betty Quilling, Accompanist; Gerald Hawkinson, Louis Hamerly, Louis Hintermeier, Majesta Shearer, Peggy Dockar, Margaret Sweeting, Ernest Everson, James Bressler.

Orchestra: Tuesday-at-five practices find orchestra members tuning up in preparation for their various public appearances. Occasional clashes of temperament may produce temporary discord, but, for the most part, the strings carry on in perfect harmony. The string orchestra has accompanied the choir at formal concerts, at baccalaureate, at graduation, and at assembly programs. With the choir, it made the much-talked-of trip to Baltimore.

Cornets: R. Morrison, D. Brown, C. Finney, R. Rumsey, B. Nelson, C. Stori, R. Arndt, E. Tanner, W. Vasey; Piccolo: K. Moon; Flutes: D. Oosterhout, M. Knight, Secretary-Treasurer; Clarinets: I. Benaman, C. Wlachan, J. Breitzman, E. Moldenbauer, H. McClung, S. Sorenson, R. Goetes, Z. Joos, N. Selves, P. Wagner, M. Raberg, B. Goodman, E. Steyena, L. Clark, B. Peterson; Saxophones: J. Erpenbach, L. Foster, J. Slamen, E. Becker, D. Stenison, G. Swanson; Mellophones: M. Jengel, M. Skinner, V. Zastrow; Trombones: I. Enli, H. Roen, R. Jewett; Librarian: E. Koss, President; R. MacMiller, H. Buus; Baritone: W. Pool, Vice-President; K. Seitz, R. Trezona, R. Berg; Basses: R. Christman, E. Kinney, V. Feiler, E. Bolle; Bass Drum: J. Tondryk; Snare Drum: R. Schneider, D. Rosenberg, H. Kvitle; Tympani: I. Hub; Cymbals: M. Russink, J. Finney; Director: Mr. Cooke.

Band: Remember the dating bureau? Whether you found it advantageous or not, you'll remember it as an innovation at a certain dance sponsored by the band. The proceeds of the dance made possible the organization's accompanying the football team to Superior and to Eau Claire. In the band's active program were concerts at Stout and at River Falls.

Third Row: Catherine Roethe, Roy Hallister, Paul Pagel, Dean Brown, Sherwood Spreiter, Ralph DeGrand, Norman Wedekind, James Peterman.
 Second Row: Jean Snayenbor, Vice-President; Virginia Walker, Arland Bartelt, President; Paul Brown, Miss Pierce, Adviser; Mr. Ives, Adviser; Raymond Christman, Lillian Baxter, Secretary, Gracia Green.
 First Row: Maesta Shearer, Treasurer; Karl Seltz, Margaret Dockar, Rose Marie Norman, Jean Nauling, Dora Mair, Carl Stukey, Business Manager; Jeannette Slamen.
 Other Members: Jane Ecke, Edward Layhe, Betty Milnes, Adrian Pollock, Howard Rathlessberger, Willis Rockwell, Carol Snell, Myrtle Smith, Virginia Wild.

Manual Arts Players:

From a farce like Big-Hearted Herbert to a romance like Moonlight and Honeysuckle, the Manual Arts Players evidence many interests in play production. Besides romping through acting parts, the M.A.P.'s enjoy developing their abilities in shoving props around, basting costumes together, slapping on greasepaint, and directing action on the stage. Through their combined efforts they have been able to provide better lighting and marked improvements for the stage. During the past year the switchboard was rewired, border lights and concert border lights were installed, and the club purchased twelve new baby spot lights and dimmers.

Tainter Hall and Annex:

Lynwood Hall: Lynwood Hall is "Home Sweet Home" to ninety-three men students. It gives the men complete study facilities in the way of a comfortable reading room, magazines, books, and large drawing tables.

Second Row: Paul Brown, Willis Rockwell, Howard Rathleberger, Gerald Bassler.
First Row: Virginia Wild, Frances Hartung, Elizabeth Watson, Marguerite Govin.

Eichelberger Scholarship: Scholarships, known as the Eichelberger scholarships, eight in number, to a total of four hundred dollars, are awarded annually, during commencement week, to four men and four women. These awards are based upon scholarship, personality, promise of success, social attitudes and accomplishments, and value of the students to the school. Only those having high scholastic ranking are given consideration. The selection of the candidates is made near the close of the regular school year by a special committee appointed each year by the President of the college.

Catherine Roethe, Pallas Athene President; Lucille Joshua, Hyperion President; Virginia Wild, Philomathean President; Maxine Clark, S.M.A. President.

Inter-Society Ball:

On December eleventh, the winter social season was ushered in with the traditional Inter-Society Christmas Ball. Large wall panels of blue, on which were appliqued silver holly leaves, and a silhouette of Santa Claus and his reindeer against a nine-foot blue panel served as a background for Don Strickland's orchestra, and with a quarter-circle bar from which punch was served completely transformed the gymnasium for this occasion. The four social societies co-operated in the presentation of the ball, with Maxine Clark, S.M.A. president, in general charge, Virginia Wild, Philomathean president, in charge of the programs and the orchestra, Lucille Joshua, Hyperion president, in charge of the decorations, and Catherine Roethe, Pallas Athene president, in charge of clean-up arrangements.
